

University academic regulations for undergraduate study and examinations.

Article one: students must complete all required credit hours before graduation.

Article two: the grade point average is calculated from all attempted courses.

Article three: attendance below seventy five percent bars the student from the final exam.